"The most powerful decision-making part of the audience is women. Boys have a lot of impact on the industry, but it's often women who impact what stories get made."
... Nina Jacobson

Dear Member,

The first ever Women's International Film Festival, jointly organised by Mumbai School of Economics and Public Policy, Mumbai University, Aayam Group of Women in Media (Pune) and Prabhat Chitra Mandal, will be held in our city from March 12 to 14. The theme of the festival is 'Films by Women directors'. The festival will be inaugurated on March 12 where Prabhat will felicitate these revolutionary women for their extra ordinary work in cinema.

The special screening of Madhumati will be organised on 29th March followed by the discussion on the newly released book Bimal Roy's Madhumati written by Rinky Roy Bhattacharya and translated by Shrimati Saroj Bawdekar.

At our Vashi venue, we are experiencing Shyam Benegal's Trilogy- Ankur, Nishant and Manthan as these three movies depicted the feudal system in pre and post Independent India. After Ankur and Nishant, let's appreciate Manthan, the movie about village empowerment against the wishes of their feudal lord. Shyam Benegal's stress on detailing and strong social outburst is evident in all of them.

World's beloved 'CHANDNI', the actor of excellence, Shridevi sadly left us few days ago. Let's relive her irreplaceable on screen performance in SADMA, and immortal movie by the legendary actress.
