“ The profession of film director can and should be such a high and precious one; that no man aspiring to it can disregard any knowledge that will make him a better film director or human being...”

... Sergei Eisenstein

Dear Member,

Hope you had a creative beginning of new year, 2019.

In celebration of renowned writer Arvind Gokhle's birth anniversary, Prabhat is screening 'Majha ghar Majhi Mansa' the film based on his short story Avidhava. Screenplay and dialogues of this film were written by G. D. Madgulkar and Sulochanadidi is in the lead role.

Mrinal Sen, one of the pioneers of “new wave” cinema in India, known for his experimentation and unconventional treatment, died few days ago. The director of Bhuvan Shome, Ek Din Achanak, Calcutta 71 and Khandhar, whose filmmaking career spanned from 1955 to 2002. Sen's death marks the passing of a golden generation of Bengali filmmakers that also included Satyajit Ray and Ritwik Ghatak. Prabhat deeply consoles this loss of film industry and wish to pay our homage to this uncompromising artist by screening and appreciating his noteworthy Bengali film 'Kharij' this month.

Get ready for International Women's Day 2019. Women in cinema have come a long way. Prabhat will celebrate women's achievements in the month of March by organizing the second edition of Woman Film Festival.
