“ When I make a film, I am hoping to reinvent the genre a little bit. I just do it my way. I make my own little Quentin versions of them... I consider myself a student of cinema. It's almost like I am going for my professorship in cinema, and the day I die is the day I graduate. It is a lifelong study.”

.... Quentin Tarantino

Dear Member,

Prabhat Chitra Mandal's very own Film festival, seventh Chitrabharati, an exclusive Indian Film Festival in association with TAG and Welinkars is successfully completed last month. We thankfully acknowledge the love and support of our sincere members towards this cinema movement.

Synopsis:

Whispering Sands:

An encounter in the desert between a lady brought by the tragic past of her family and a guide who discovers, at the end, the dark future of his family...

Visit (El Ziara):

A dreamlike journey of Youssef, 30 years old sick with the amnesia. A girl leads him in front of the "House of the light", that recalls something in him. He researches the missing piece of memory.
