“My films are therapy for my debilitating depression. In institutions people weave baskets. I make films.”

.... Woody Allen

Dear Member,

Here we are with our very own film festival, 18th Third Eye Asian Film Festival. Initiated by Prabhat Chitra Mandal, to promote Asian cinema, this year it will be held between 1st and 6th March at Ravindra Natya Mandir, Mini theatre. Register for yet another exuberant feast of cinema. Online Registration for delegates will be available on our Website www.affmumbai.org. Members can register at the venue from 24th February. Prabhat Members can register themselves at Prabhat Office from 20th February. The catalogue fee for Prabhat members and college students will be Rs. 400 and for others Rs. 600/-.

With reference to completion of 50 years to Indian Parallel Cinema, Prabhat is celebrating by screening some of the landmark parallel films since last month. We are screening National award winning Marathi movie Kaasav this month. Known for its serious concern about depression in people, realism and naturalism, symbolic elements with a soulful connection of human with nature. Parallel cinema has always been and will always be the backbone of Indian cinema industry. Prabhat urges Indian film audience to get more and more acquainted with this meaningful cinema only to help improve the quality of our future National cinema.
