“ I am an optimist and a humanist and have tried to project this through my works. Throughout my career I have focused on socially relevant subjects, never repeating myself. The language of cinema is of prime concern for me. I always abide by it.”

.... Mrinal Sen

Dear Member,

With the encouraging response to Women Film Festival happened in March, Prabhat Chitra Mandal is all set for Seventh CHITRABHARATI, an exclusive Indian Film Festival which will be held in May 2019 in association with Welingkar Institute and TAG, will be held in this month between 14th to 17th at Welingkar Institute, Matunga and 18th & 19th at Viviyana Mall, Thane. Chitrabharati will focus on best of our very own Indian Regional Films, award winning Indian features and attention worthy short films. Prabhat, not only promotes watching good cinema but also contributes to making better film audience. Prabhat as a responsible film society also looks forward to developing the younger breed of film makers by organising the short film competition. Kindly check www.prabhatchitramandal.org for any further information.

Mrinal Sen, a legendary and prominent director of Indian cinema from the early age, sadly passed away recently. He was a classical Filmmaker whose movies were more realistic and artistic. His movies got applauded all over the world. Diverse movies over a long career span earned him several awards and innumerable appreciation. Prabhat shall pay him the tribute by screening two of his landmark films.
